JOURNAL SENTINEL, WISCONSINEYE FEATURE CHAIRWOMAN DIMITRIJEVIC

Interviews stress importance of unity, transit, parks, State support

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Board Chairwoman Marina Dimitrijevic is featured on two separate web interviews this week.

Ernie Franzen from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel sat down with Chairwoman Dimitrijevic for a “4th and State” interview, while Steve Walters from WisconsinEye conducted an interview from a statewide perspective.

During the WisconsinEye interview, Chairwoman Dimitrijevic said she hopes State officials will realize the value of Milwaukee County being the economic engine of Wisconsin. “If Milwaukee doesn’t succeed, the State of Wisconsin will not succeed,” Chairwoman Dimitrijevic said.

In the interviews, Chairwoman Dimitrijevic stressed her objectives of creating more unity within Milwaukee County, solving transit funding challenges, and addressing deferred maintenance needs in the Parks. Both interviews are available for online viewing:
